You can get started

By coming and visiting as a guest as many times as you wish.

Become a member

After one or two visits as guest you will certainly find out: Toastmasters is the right place for you or not. If so, then join the club. You can start participating and giving speeches any time you want. You can fulfill certain requirements to achieve certificates. To reach those goals you fulfill a number of projects in the manuals "Competent Communication" for speaking abilities and "Competent Leadership" for leading skills. You determine the time you need for it.

We help you

By appointing a personal mentor who can support you during your first projects.

We communicate

Via a yahoo-group which you can join:
